Burial—Permit Required. (Reg. Bd. of H., May 19, 1914.)

SEC. 24. Burial and burial permits.—Every undertaker, sexton, or other person having charge of any corpse shall procure a burial permit from the local registrar with whom the certificate of death has been filed or the subregistrar of the town or municipality, and there shall be no burial or removal of a corpse until a certificate of death has been filed as required by law and a burial or transit permit issued.

Any violation of this ordinance shall subject the offending party to a penalty of $10 for each offense, or imprisonment for not more than 10 days, or both.

SEC. 25. Sextons, cemetery keepers, etc.—Every person who acts as a sexton or undertaker or cemetery keeper within the limits of this town, or has the charge or care of any tomb, vault, burying ground, or other place for the reception of the dead, or where the bodies of any human beings are deposited, shall so conduct his business and so care for such place above named as to avoid detriment or danger to public health; and any person undertaking preparations for the burial of a body dead from contagious or infectious disease as hereinbefore enumerated shall adopt such precautions as the board of health may prescribe to prevent the spread of such disease. Any violation of any of the provisions of this ordinance shall subject the offending party to a penalty of $10 for each offense, or imprisonment for not more than 10 days, or both.

Health Officer—Powers and Duties. (Reg. Bd. of H., May 19, 1914.)

SEC. 26. The health officer is directed and empowered to execute and enforce all sanitary regulations of general obligation now or hereafter to be published by this board; also to enter upon or within any premises where conditions dangerous to the public health are known or believed to exist, and to examine into the nature of complaints made by any of the inhabitants concerning sources of danger or injury to health; and he shall preserve accurate records of his official actions and report the same to the board of health at its next meeting. And whenever in his judgment danger to public health shall arise requiring special regulation not of general application, he shall forthwith notify the president of the board of health, who shall thereupon convene the board to make such action as may be necessary and proper.

Spitting—Prohibited in Public Conveyances. (Reg. Bd. of H., May 19, 1914.)

SEC. 28. Spitting in any railroad car, trolley car, or any other public conveyance, or upon any part thereof, being operated in the town of North Hempstead, is hereby prohibited; and any person violating this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and may be subject to a fine of $50, or by six months' imprisonment, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Penalty. (Reg. Bd. of H., May 19, 1914.)

SEC. 29. Any willful violation of the foregoing rules and regulations, or any refusal to comply therewith or with any lawful order of the board of health will be deemed a misdemeanor, and any person or persons so violating the same or refusing to obey any lawful order of said board of health will be liable to arrest, action, and penalty, as provided by the public health law of the State of New York and the penal code of said State of which due notice must be taken.
